1.0 About the Institute:

Visvesvaraya National Institute of Technology (VNIT), Nagpur is one of the thirty one National Institutes of Technology in the country. National Institutes of Technology Act, 2007 (29 of 2007)) declared VNIT Nagpur as an Institute of National Importance along with all other NITs. The Act was brought into force from 15th August 2007. Earlier, the Institute was known as Visvesvaraya Regional College of Engineering (VRCE). It was established in the year 1960 under the scheme sponsored by Govt. of India and Govt. of Maharashtra. The Institute is named after the eminent engineer, planner and statesman of the country Bharat Ratna 'Sir M. Visvesvaraya'.

Institute offers B. Tech. degree in eight disciplines, B.Arch degree, M. Tech. degree in eighteen disciplines of Engineering and M.Sc degree in three disciplines. Admissions to UG and PG programmes are on the basis of JEE (Main) and GATE scores respectively. UG and PG programmes are credit based and a number of electives are offered to the students. About 3000 UG and 300 PG students are pursuing studies for the degrees. Institute offers Ph. D. programs in various streams of Engineering, Science, Humanities and Architecture. Institute has highly qualified faculty strength of more than 200. Good testing, computing and consultancy facilities are also available. Institute has good Training & Placement Section and more than 90% students get the placement through campus interviews. Institute has collaboration with TIFR, IISc, NEERI, JNARDDC, IIT Kanpur, IIT Mumbai, BRNS, IGCAR etc. for research and other academic activities. VNIT has excellent residential facilities to cater the need of more than three thousand students. There are separate boys and girls hostels to cater the needs of UG, PG and Ph.D. students.

2.0 About M.Sc. Programmes:

VNIT offers Two year full time M.Sc. Programmes in Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics.

Science is basic foundation of any technological and engineering creation. In view of the changing scenario at national and international level in field of Science and Technology, there is great demand for basic sciences with considerable knowledge of its applications. VNIT is committed to high academic standards. The M.Sc. courses are designed for four semesters (two years) in such a way that a good basic foundation of subjects is laid and applications along with recent developments are covered. Relative grading will be followed and credits will be allotted based on academic performance. Students will also get theoretical and practical knowledge of computer programming. These M.Sc. programmes provide opportunity to make career in R&D, industries and academic institutions. Opportunity for the placement may be provided by the Institute. For detailed scheme of M.Sc. Programmes, refer Annexure placed at the end of this brochure.

2.1 Achievements of M.Sc. Students:

M.Sc. students are qualifying National level Examinations such as CSIR (UGC)-NET, GATE/JEST as well as being awarded by various research fellowships by Indian and Foreign Universities for pursuing their Ph.D.

Students are also publishing research papers, based on their M.Sc. project work, in reputed international journals.

2.2 M.Sc. Physics Programme:

M.Sc. Physics programme imparts hands on training in theoretical as well as practical aspects of physics, so that student's ability to tackle physics problems is inculcated in them. This programme lays thrust on fundamentals of core and applied subjects of Physics and also provides knowledge on topics of current interest.

In the M.Sc. programme, total 15 theory courses will be taught over four semesters. In addition, there will be a project in two phases. The department has well equipped labs to provide practical skills to students.

Classical, Quantum and Statistical Mechanics and Solid State Physics lay a basic foundation in core subjects of Physics. Courses such as Electronics, Characterization techniques, Materials Science, Thin film techniques and Nanomaterials provide knowledge of applied topics and cover topics of recent interest also. Computer programming will also be taught. Students can look forward to a career in teaching, industry and research. To aid in teaching career, NET syllabus is covered.

2.3 M.Sc. Chemistry Programme:

The special feature of M.Sc. Chemistry is a good foundation of basics and research component through practical skills, which in turn will provide excellent job prospects in Academics, Industries and other field of interest. This programme will provide competence to tackle frontier area in Green chemistry, Supramolecular chemistry, Sensors, Advanced materials and Advanced organic chemistry.

Two years M.Sc. programme in Chemistry will be conducted in four semesters. Communication Skill has been included as audit course in first semester, which will help students to develop better presentation skills. In addition to the theory and practical courses, project phase-I and computational chemistry lab will be introduced in third semester. Fourth semester has two elective courses, in addition to a core course and project phase-II. Nine electives have been incorporated in the course considering variety of advanced interest.

2.4 M.Sc. Mathematics Programme:

The objective of the M.Sc. Mathematics is to develop highly qualified/trained mathematicians to cater to the needs of the industry, teaching and research institutions. Department of Mathematics has highly qualified, motivated, dynamic and experienced faculty members. The M.Sc. programme in Mathematics is intended to offer a balanced combination of core and applied courses of Mathematics. It also emphasizes advanced developments in the field of analysis, fluid mechanics, mathematical physics and scientific computing. This M.Sc. programme is designed for four semesters. In the first semester a course of Introduction to Computer Programming and another course of communication skill are included; this will be helpful to students in their professional career. In addition to the regular courses, there are elective courses in third and fourth semesters of the programme. There is provision for each student to give a seminar (on Project Phase I) in third semester and complete a dissertation (on Project Phase II) in fourth semester under the guidance of faculty members of the Department. In these activities, student explores a specific topic, surveys the available literature and submits a critical review in the form of a report which may also include original theoretical results and/or results of experimental work. This process provides an initiation into mathematical research and also equips the student with the skills of presentation of research/technical report. This will be useful in developing awareness, aspiration and innovative ability to solve new scientific problems.
